

Sound of Ikebana (Spring)

Naoko Tosa

April 1 - 30, 2017 | nightly at 11:57pm

Times Square's Electronic Billboards
42nd-49th Streets,
between Broadway & 7th Ave

Media artist and Japan Cultural Envoy 2016 Naoko Tosa interprets the traditional art of Japanese flower arrangement through digital technology. Captured in marvelous slow motion at 2000 frames per second, liquid paint leaps and spirals across the screen in motion and colors that may rouse the apricot flowers and cherry blossoms of Spring.

Presented in partnership with Japan Society Gallery.

Midnight Moment is the world's largest, longest-running digital art exhibition, synchronized on electronic billboards throughout Times Square nightly from 11:57pm to midnight.

Presented by Times Square Advertising Coalition
